THE ROAD RACE

Will Be For The Championship Of The State.

As was exclusively announced in Saturday's Telegram, a bicycle road race will be one of the most prominent features of this year's Fourth of July celebration at the Battle Ground. It was intended at first to make it a local contest and to restrict the riders to those who live in Guilford county but after a consultation among the promoters of the scheme it was decided to open the race to others and allow any rider in the state to compete. This is a good move as it will create greater interest in the race than was possible to secure had it remained a purely local affair. By arousing the interest of cyclists throughout the state the contest will more probably become a permanent attraction of the annual celebrations.

The winner of the race will not only secure the first prize, which we are assured will be one worthy of the race, but he will be declared the champion of North Carolina. This alone should be an incentive to hard work. Two other prizes will be offered in the men's class. The boy's race will be run as announced Saturday with three prizes offered. Let Greensboro cyclists train hard and well and keep the championship of the state here.

Tuning Incidents.

Nearly every man having a little knowledge of music sometime essays to tune p'anos. The consequence is instruments not correctly tempered so that they are equal in all the keys. Not long since a so-called tuner was compelled to acknowledge that he did not understand it and to refund the money. Another not far from Greensboro took the action of a ladies piano all to pieces and scattered it about the room and went up town and got drunk, keeping her in suspense about her piano until he could be sobered up. Still another came to Greensboro on the eve of a concert, took the piano action all to pieces and brushed it up, and being interrogated he confessed to not even having a tuning hammer. Moral: Get Mr. Brockmann to do your piano work—reduced prices during vacation.

Local Druggists Meet.

The local druggists had a meeting this afternoon to take some action in regard to the increase tax on patent medicines, etc. The emergency appropriation bill places a tax of one-eighth of a cent on each five cents worth of patent medicine or other goods of original packages, such as chewing gum, etc. This tax is regarded as excessive by druggists who claim the bill will defeat its own ends by driving many preparations out of the market. The action of the druggists could not be learned up to press hour.

Court Adjourned.

Saturday closed the three weeks term of Superior court for Guilford county, and Judge Robinson went home on the noon train.

One of the last cases tried was that mentioned yesterday, John W. Strocker and wife vs. Aberdeen & Asheboro railway company. Plaintiffs were suing for $5,000 and the jury gave a verdict for $50. W. C. Douglas, of Raleigh, and Shaw and Seales appeared for the railroad and Col. J. T. Morehead for the plaintiffs.

Second Behaves Well.

The officers and men of the Second Regiment, paid off yesterday, behaved beautifully. There was no drunkenness or disorder, no crowds of soldiers in the city. In fact, last night your correspondent saw only two officers and a sergeant besides the provost guard. All this is in the highest degree creditable to the regiment. Col. Burgwyn's well-timed order was obeyed to the letter.—Col. Olds correspondence.

Prepared For Eventualities.

Madrid, June 26, 6 p. m.—In view of the American threat to send a fleet to the peninsula, the government deems it advisable to be prepared for eventualities. The lights at certain ports have been extinguished, torpedoes have been prepared and additional guards have been mounted. The government has prohibited the dispatch of telegrams from Cuba announcing the arrival of vessels which have forced the blockade.

The Queen Regent has sanctioned the various measures which were adopted by the Cortes.

Gallant Americans Recommended For Promotion.

CAMARA IS IN THE SUEZ CANAL.

Havana Not So Gay—Ships Ready to Sail—Annexation Debate—Sagasta Denies the Crisis.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 27—President McKinley today sent two special messages to congress providing for the recognition of the services of Hobson and his crew in blocking the harbor of Santiago de Cuba; of Newcomb and the crew of the revenue cutter Hudson which rescued the torpedo boat Winslow under the fire of the batteries at Cardenas; of Captain Hodgson of the despatch boat McCulloch which figured in the battle of Manila; also of Cadet Powell who took a launch under the forts at Santiago to rescue the crew of the Merrimac. In the message authority is asked of the senate to transfer Hobson from the construction corps to the line of the navy. In his message, in mentioning Hobson, the president cites the fact that the members of his crew have already been promoted.

CADIZ FLEET BOTTLED UP.

Port Said, June 27—Admiral Camara's fleet is here but is unable to obtain coal and consequently cannot proceed further. Army Mail Facilities.

The soldiers in the present war have many conveniences that were unknown to the soldiers on either side during the civil war, and one of these is mail facilities. A number of expert postal clerks and mail-sorters went to Cuba with General Shafter and a postoffice has been established near Santiago. After a battle, the soldiers who survive can write letters to their home people with the assurance that the letters will be delivered at their destination almost as quickly as in times of peace. What is better still, for the soldier, he can get letters from home with a certain degree of regularity. No such condition of affairs existed during the late war, and in many other respects the soldiers of today are more fortunately conditioned than were some of their fathers, who bore many hardships that will not be encountered in the war now in progress.—Charlotte Observer.

Raw Recruits for Tampa.

The Sixty-Ninth New York and Third Pennsylvania troops through here yesterday on their way to Tampa. There were about 400 men and they went through in two trains of a total of 13 cars. The recruits were all very raw and appeared to be a tough gang, most of whom were Irish. They presented a rather sorry appearance, many being poorly clad and extremely dirty. Only one or two of the whole number had on uniforms.

Urges Direct Negotiation.

Madrid, June 26, 11 p. m.—El Imparcial, in an article which has created a sensation, urges direct negotiations with America for peace, when the time comes, on the ground that Spain can get better terms from America's generosity, "as America will be only to deluged with European intervention." The article reflects the growing resentment against the powers.

Mr. P. Ketchman of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brothers late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by C. E. Holton.

ORDERED TO SPANISH COAST

Watson Sails Today to Join Admiral Sampson's Squadron.

SHIPS COMPOSING THE FLEET.

Pushing Troops Toward Santiago—Shafter Pleased—Camara Must Fight or Run.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 27—The navy department issued the following bulletin this morning:

Commodore Watson, now commanding the blockading squadron before Havana, has been ordered to sail today on board the Newark to form a junction with Admiral Sampson where he will take command of the armored squadron. One of the American commanders will thence proceed at once with swift cruisers to the coast of Spain.

The bulletin does not give the names of the cruisers to compose the new squadron but the New Orleans, Columbia, Minneapolis, New York and Brooklyn will probably compose its main fighting strength.

WATSON'S SHIPS.

Washington, June 27—Later—The official announcement that a strong fleet will be sent to the Spanish coast has aroused an intense feeling of satisfaction in official circles. It sets at rest all talk of peace negotiations and shows the clear purpose of the administration to follow out an aggressive campaign. The bold announcement seems to have had for its purpose the recalling of Camara's fleet from Port Said which fleet, it is reported, is bound for the Philippines. It is said that while the government has no fear but that Admiral Dewey is safe it much prefers to engage the fleet off the Spanish coast and let matters be quiet at Manila.

Commodore Watson will probably include in his fleet the battleships Oregon and Iowa, the cruisers New York, Brooklyn, St. Paul and St. Louis. The partial official list given out by the navy department names as the eastern squadron includes the battleships Oregon and Iowa, the auxiliary cruisers Yosemite, Dixie, Yankee and the colliers Seinda, Abunde and Alexander, with the Newark as flagship.

LAST OF MANILA EXPEDITION.

San Francisco, June 27—All of the transports composing the third Manila expedition are in readiness to sail at a moment's notice. All the troops and supplies are already aboard but the expedition may be delayed until tomorrow as the work on the Volencia is not quite completed. The exact hour of sailing will not be known until the end of the conference between Generals Merritt and McArthur when positive orders are expected from Washington. Additional recruits in large numbers have arrived.

RIGHT ON TO SANTIAGO.

On despatch boat, off Baquiri, June 27—The third and ninth calvary are the only ones remaining here to guard the material. All of the other regiments are being pushed towards Santiago as rapidly as possible. Active operations are expected to begin next Wednesday. Interruptions of the means of communication between the fleet and army by storms is liable to occur at any time. Juragua and Baquiri both, have open roads with no protection. General Shafter expresses perfect satisfaction at the success in landing the troops.

AT THE GATES OF SANTIAGO.

On despatch boat, off Santiago, June 26—A decisive battle is expected at any moment. General Joe Wheeler's division was within ten miles of the city last Friday night and was joined by reinforcements under General Shafter this morning while Admiral Sampson has reduced every shore battery defense for twenty miles either way along the coast from Santiago. Chaffee's wing of General Wheeler's command has captured and is in possession of Sevilla, seven miles from Santiago, after a sharp battle. The official report places the American loss at twenty-one killed and eighty wounded. The Spaniards left thirty nine dead soldiers on the field. From the positions occupied by the American troops one can plainly see the streets and inhabitants of Santiago. It is reported that a large number of wounded soldiers are entering the city at stated intervals.

PRAISE FROM THE ENEMY.

Madrid, June 27—Despatches from Havana declare Friday's fight to have been favorable to the Spaniards but advises credit Colonel Wood's command and Roosevelt with displaying the greatest courage.

Has Reidsville Small Pox?

Special to the Telegram.

Reidsville, June 27—The small pox scare has somewhat subsided here today. The general opinion is that the negro suspect has not small pox. Although the eruption is perfect the negro has not been sick in the least. However he has been quarantined and a guard placed around the house. A general vaccination has been ordered by the authorities and ample precautions have been taken to prevent the disease from becoming epidemic. A government expert has been telegraphed for and is expected to arrive tonight.

Clay Against Annexation.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 27—The senate convened today at eleven and no quorum present was declared. The opponents of annexation demanded a roll call of the senate. The sergeant-at-arms was requested to bring in absent senators. In an hour a quorum was secured and Senator Clay began his speech against annexation.

THE CLARK-KILGO CONTROVERSY.

Friends of Trinity College, and in that category should be placed all unbiased friends of education in North Carolina, have cause to sincerely deprecate the controversy between Pres. Jno. C. Kilgo and Justice Walter Clark, a member of the board of trustees of Trinity College, the incidents of which controversy were published in yesterday's News and Observer. The matter had its root in a letter of Justice Clark's, criticising certain gifts of money to Trinity College, and in some remarks of his in private conversation that were not exactly laudatory of Dr. Kilgo. Acting upon these the board of trustees of the college, without notice to him, Justice Clark claims, requested his resignation as a member of the board. No opportunity was given Justice Clark to be heard in his own defense and the board, in reply to a request from him, declined to disclose the grounds of its action or the sources of its information. Such appears from the published correspondence of Justice Clark and Secretary of the Board Ballard.

The board would seem to have blundered in this matter. Colleges are supposed to be, if anything, teachers of fairness and justice. It is a principle of American jurisprudence, as essential as the air that Americans breathe, that the accused has a right to be heard in his own defense. To that Justice Clark, no matter what the charges against him, was entitled and in refusing to grant it the board has put itself clearly in the wrong. Justice Clark should have been heard and if, after such hearing, the board of trustees were convinced that his continuance as a member of the board was injurious to the college, as men carrying its interests close to their hearts, and as its legal representatives, the members might have, with seemliness, suggested Justice Clark's resignation. Many thoughtful men who disagree to Justice Clark's views on the subject of gifts to Trinity College cannot assent to the methods taken to be rid of him. His estimate of Dr. Kilgo is a purely private matter. Justice Clark is one of the most scholarly men in the state, a member of its highest tribunal of justice, certainly in any particular the peer of Dr. Kilgo, and by no means a man to be dismissed with contempt from any body of which he may chance to be a member.

The following is from the resolutions adopted by the committee of the board: "3rd. That we hereby, in the light of ample evidence, positively affirm that Judge Clark's charge against Dr. Kilgo as including himself to be elected as president of Trinity College for four years, which was to secure for himself 'protection from removal for four years,' is not only unsupported, but is actually contradicted by facts."

The question is not as to the "ample evidence," nor as to "charges against Dr. Kilgo." Justice Clark had a right to hear this "ample evidence" and to offer evidence in rebuttal of it, if he wished to do so. To refuse him this was to deny him a privilege accorded to every common criminal in every court of justice throughout the English speaking world. Justice Clark is perhaps, right when he says: "A verdict obtained by a jury appointed at the instance of the prosecution without any evidence or argument except from that side, and no opportunity to me to give any, and with refusal subsequently of all information as to the proceedings will command no respect from any impartial or intelligent man."

We would not be understood as making any attack upon Trinity's board of trustees. But their action certainly appears most extraordinary. The public is entitled to, and will doubtless await with interest, their reasons for such action.

When Colonel Roosevelt went about organizing his regiment people who knew him well predicted that volunteers under him would see plenty of fighting. They spoke knowingly. Mr. Roosevelt is not the man to shirk a fight whether with saloon thugs in New York or Spaniards in Cuba. Taken altogether Mr. Roosevelt is about as good an example of the genuine American as one finds in a long day's hunt. He is reported to have disliked the term 'Rough Riders' applied to his troop. He will like it better when he comes back, as we hope he may.

Compliment to the Boys.

The Concord Standard, in closing a column article on the second game of ball between our boys and the Concord team says: "We must say, as it is nothing more than just, that Greensboro certainly sent a nice crowd of young men in their baseball team. We don't think that there was an enemy made by the game and all seemed to be conservative as to the game. The fact that Concord beat them playing ball did not cause them to be lowered in anyone's estimation, and our boys became somewhat attached to some of them during the two days' stay."

MRS. JOE PERSON.
Dear Madam: About the last of December there appeared something like heat on our baby's face. On the fourth Sunday in January his face and head were filled with running sores and he suffered severely. We were satisfied the dreadful disease was the above mentioned day eczema. On the above mentioned day Rev. K. D. Holmes and Mr. Herbert E. Crews recommended to us in the highest terms, Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. With the great confidence we had in these gentlemen, we proceeded at once to use it. Two months later, the fourth Sunday in March, Rev. Mr. Holmes saw the same child and could scarcely recognize him. The child is seven months old, his face is well, and there are only slight signs of the disease about his head. He is the picture of health and is hearty and strong. We gladly recommend Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for all forms of eczema, and think that it is the best blood purifier on the market. With best wishes, I am,
Your friend,

AN ONONDAGA CHIEF'S BURIAL.

Christian Rites Over Him for Lack of Pagan to Conduct Ceremonies.

Syracuse, N. Y. June 25.—Charles Lyon, a pagan chief of the Onondagas was buried in the pagan cemetery back of the Council House on the Onondagas' reservation today with Christian rites. The funeral was strange, nevertheless, from the white man's standpoint.

After Chief Lyon died on Wednesday his son-in-law, Chief Harry Isaac, caused the tallest, straightest hickory sapling that could be found on the reservation to be cut and erected in front of the late chief's house. At the very top a large American flag was hoisted. Arching the doorway and extending over the bier inside was arranged a canopy of red, white and blue bunting. Beneath this canopy the body was carried by the Indian bearers to the Long House where the white dog is annually burned and the councils of the Six Nations are held.

When it was time for the ceremonies to begin today not a pagan appeared in war paint. This fact indicated the almost extinction of pagan customs among the Onondagas. It was hurriedly decided to send for a Christian minister, and so a prayer was offered by the Rev. W. H. Mills, the Methodist missionary at the reservation. As a compromise with the pagan element the body was interred in their burial ground. There were some mutterings of protest among the pagans on the ground that Chief Lyon had lived and died in their faith, but they were ignorant of an incident that took place a few hours before his death. When he knew he could not recover he sent for a Christian minister and asked that he be legally married to his squaw, whom he had taken in the pagan fashion. This was done.

Only one pagan chief remains on the reservation and his followers hardly number twenty. His name is Daniel Laforte and he was too ill to attend the services.

Chief Lyon was 60 years old, a veteran of the civil war, and was at one time accounted the fleetest of foot on the reservation.

Notes of The Prowler

There have been a considerable number of jokes perpetrated concerning the pronunciation of Spanish names, and the variety of pronunciation of any given name is quite as large as the number of pronouncers. Yet there are good American names that endanger the integrity of the jawbone quite as seriously as Puigecerver or Romero y Robledo. Take 'Alger' for example. There are no less than five distinctly different pronunciations of it to be heard in any group of war strategists you may chance to run upon—and you run upon them at every shady corner. Grosevenor does not fare much better, while Schley is still called Sly and Slay though most directors of naval operations have learned that he answers most promptly to Sly.

If any additional evidence is needed of rampant belligerency it is to be found here just at present. Two young men of town were out at the Battle Ground one night very recently when the war spirit got the better of them. Tomahawks danced before their dazzled eyes and machetes gleamed "in the glimpses of the moon." Now one of the young gentlemen has a laggon of mourning around one of the windows of his soul and the other carries his arm in a sling. The president should make haste to call for that third quota of volunteers. There is much good material running to waste hereabout.

His Honor Judge Robinson, along toward the end of his last day here, arose from the bench, walked calmly down to a member of the bar and asked for a "chawterbacker." When he had safely lodged a slab of the weed 2x2 between the upper and nether millstones, he closed his eyes reflectively for a moment and then said to the member "I'm ashamed of this week's work." The members who heard the remark eyed each other furtively but like the "tar baby" did not rise to remark. No remark was needed. His Honor had, for once, hit the nail on what is classically called the "top-knot."

A Dictatorship Threatened.

London, June 27.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: "The latest advices from Madrid indicate that there is ground for the apprehension that Marshal Martinez de Campos will soon issue a pronouncement and attempt a dictatorship."

"Minute directions have been sent to the Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Madrid, Count Dubsky, regarding the personal safety of the Queen Regent. The latest news from Madrid is that the situation is so serious that several cabinet meetings have been held in a desperate attempt to avert a crisis."

We are requested to announce that at the meeting of Odd Fellows tomorrow night amendments will come up for final action. All members are requested to be present.

It is certain that David Bagley, the youngest brother of Ensign Worth Bagley, will be appointed by the president to the naval cadetship at large.

and we are expectantly waiting to hear of a great battle, the result of which many think will be practically the end of the war, as we Americans will tolerate no thought but Victory. But while our brave boys wage battles for the freedom of down trodden Cuba, the children at home must be clothed. As the season advances, naturally our profits grow less. We can't sell summer goods in winter, and for that reason if you will give us a call we will make you some interesting prices in Children's Clothing. Ages 3 to 16. BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

W. F. Clegg returned last night from an extended trip to Ocean View, Virginia.

Oil up your wheel and commence to practice for the big road race next Monday.

Miss Janie Bidding, of Mt. Airy, is visiting Miss Carter at the home of Mr. Wharton, on North Elm street.

Rev. S. O. Hall, pastor of Westminster church, left this morning for Amsterdam, Va., to spend about a month resting up.

Miss Julia Hartsell, who has been visiting her sisters, Misses Hattie and Flora, in this city, returned home this morning.

Wharton & McAlister advertise vacant lots for sale this evening. Carriages leave court house at 6 o'clock. Seats free to all.

Dr. H. B. Shields, of Carthage, arrived in the city this afternoon. The genial and handsome doctor always finds a hearty welcome in our city.

Surgeon Brooks, of the Second Regiment, is under orders to go to Fort Macon, Wednesday, to examine officers and enlisted men of the negro regiment. Lieutenant Harlowe, the mustering officer, goes to Fort Macon tomorrow.

The Young People's Missionary Society of the Friends church will give a lawn party on the lawn at Mr. J. R. Mendenhall's, tomorrow night (Tuesday). Go out and spend a pleasant evening and help a good cause by your patronage.

Mr. R. M. B., Master Richard, and Misses Jennie and Kate Ellington, of Reidsville, passed through today en route to Rocky Mount. The three latter are children of Capt. A. J. Ellington, of the Reidsville company, now in the First Regiment at Jacksonville.

Manager R. M. Phillips left this afternoon for a cruise in his private yacht, Piscator, on Deep river. While away Mr. Phillips will replenish his stock of fish yards and otherwise equip himself for the demands upon a newspaper man's conscience and imagination. He will be gone all week.

The Proximity and Finishing Mills baseball teams met on the diamond Saturday afternoon at the ball park. Proximity played badly in the beginning, but in the latter part of the game the tide was turned and Proximity played good ball for the remainder of the game. The score was 10 to 7 in favor of Proximity.

A colored excursion of five well filled coaches left here about 9 o'clock this morning for Winston. The train went via C. F. & Y. V. and the N. & W. The excursion was run by one of Greensboro's prominent colored men and was accompanied by the Star Cornet Band. The excursionists seemed to be tolerably well behaved.

Work of the Police.

The police, though not overworked, did well Saturday afternoon and Sunday, considering the extreme heat. Officer Scott started the ball rolling by arresting Tom Brookshire, colored, for stealing a farmer's lunch from his buggy. He was bound over to court by Mayor Nelson. A pretty costly dinner as court doesn't meet until September. It will cost the county about forty dollars.

Officer Whittington arrested Charlie Smith, a colored boy, for cursing a railroad man. Smith rode into town Saturday on the cow-catcher of a C. F. & Y. V. engine.

John Currie was next on the list, being arrested by Officers Pearce and Whittington for wife beating.

Oscar Flagg another colored man who is said to versed in the same gentle art was arrested by Officer Whittington on Sunday.

Will Collins was arrested for making threats.

Important Notice.

The Carolina Shoe company has just received the noblest up-to-date line of mens fine handmade shoes ever shown in Greensboro—$3.00, $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00. Every pair warranted. S. B. Norris, Manager.

Attention, Baseballists.

We are requested to announce that all the members of the first base ball team are requested to report at the ball park every afternoon this week for practice. The management desires every member present and to put in a week of hard work.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for 20 years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold by C. E. Holton.

Another Lawn Party.

The Epworth League of Centenary church will give a lawn party on the lawn of Mr. J. R. Mendenhall's, on next Thursday night. The object is to raise funds for the purchase of an organ for Centenary's new Sunday school annex.

Lawn parties are welcome and enjoyable events during such as the present weather and the young people will no doubt receive the encouragement which they deserve for their untiring efforts for the upbuilding of their church.

Admiral Sampson has retracted the charge that Americans killed at Calmanera were mutilated with machetes. The apparent mutilation was due to bullet wounds.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Looks Like It.

The opinion has been expressed by a good many people, and found its way into print several months ago, that the Governor of North Carolina is crazy. We wonder if it can be true? There are facts which give color to the belief. His undertaking to bully a young newspaper man last Wednesday on account of a publication made last February, developed the fact that the governor keeps a pistol and a shotgun in his office. Last year, during the troubles preceding the change in the railroad commission, the governor, we are told, conceived the idea that his life was in danger and sent to the penitentiary for a guard for his protection, when nobody was thinking of attacking him. It may be going too far to say that he is a crazy man, but he is at least morbid on the subject of his personal safety if the truth is told as to his precautions for his protection. No citizen of the state is safer and if he were perfectly right in his head he would know it.—Charlotte Observer.
